3. The basis for the request for withdrawal is 37 CFR § 10.40(c)(1)(vi).

Explanation (including brief description of exhibits, if any):

This application was originally prepared on behalf and at the request of Search123.com, Inc., at the time a client of our law firm, Lyon & Lyon, LLP. The first named applicant, James K. Beriker, is also the president of our client.

Since June 19, 2000, the client for the above referenced patent has carried a balance with Lyon & Lyon, which currently amounts to $22,539.65. Despite repeated efforts by the undersigned to contact the client regarding this outstanding balance, Lyon & Lyon has received no reply. Specifically, on November 21, 2001, following up on a previous phone message, I tried to contact James K. Beriker regarding the account balance. I left a phone message, but received no reply. Out of an abundance of caution I verified the client's address, verified that the client was still in business, and verified that James K. Beriker was still its president. On December 4, 2001, I sent a letter to James K. Beriker, as president of Search123.com, informing him that if we did not hear from Search123.com regarding the outstanding balance by December 17, 2001, we would seek to withdraw as attorney for the above referenced patent application. As of February 4, 2002, Lyon & Lyon has received no reply.

4. The above referenced patent application was filed with the Patent Office on September 1, 2000 with James K. Beriker as the first named inventor. Missing Parts for this application were filed on October 2, 2000. The undersigned is not aware of any outstanding action or pending period for response regarding this application.

5. In accordance with 37 CFR §10.40(a), a copy of this notice to request to withdraw is being sent to the client.

6. This request is enclosed in triplicate.

7. There are no related applications for which withdrawal is requested.

8. Signatures(s) of the attorney(s) withdrawing (or signature of an authorized attorney on behalf of an attorney withdrawing).

The undersigned respectfully requests withdrawal for himself and on behalf of all attorneys designated by the following Customer Number:
